- (15) Every branch auditor shall report to the board on the returns made up annually by the branch in respect of which he has been appointed auditor and shall state in his report whether or not in his opinion the returns contain the necessary information relating to the operations of the branch to enable the main auditors of the mutual bank to report in terms of section 43(6).
- (16) A copy of every report submitted to the board by a branch auditor, whether dealing with an irregularity or undesirable practice or with any other matter, shall be transmitted forthwith by such auditor to the main auditors of the mutual bank.

 - (b) in the case of an amalgamation of two or more mutual banks or the transfer of assets and liabilities from one mutual bank to another mutual bank, the agreement specifically provides that there shall be no division of the profits or of any of the reserves of the mutual banks concerned among their members, but nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as preventing the making of reasonable provision out of the profits of a mutual bank for compensation to its officers (other than directors, alternate directors or members of local boards) for any resulting loss of office or for payment in recognition of past services rendered by such officers;
 - (c) the provisions of the agreement for the contemplated amalgamation or transfer are confirmed by special resolution by each of the mutual banks concerned or by the mutual bank concerned and the bank concerned, as the case may be.

 - (b) the agreement referred to in subsection (2) provides that the mutual bank transferring part of its assets and liabilities shall from time to time invest in stock, debt instruments or shares issued by the transferee mutual bank or institution, as the case may be, in order that such mutual bank or institution may repay deposits which the first-mentioned mutual bank transferred to it and which are withdrawn on the first maturity date subsequent to the date of the said transfer of assets and liabilities and may redeem, during such period as the Registrar may approve and on the conditions set out in the said agreement, any shares in it so transferred.
